THE SCROLL

Our life is a scroll where we write our deeds
And memory is the unwinding,
Time's mists clear away to him who reads
Revealing a past that is binding.

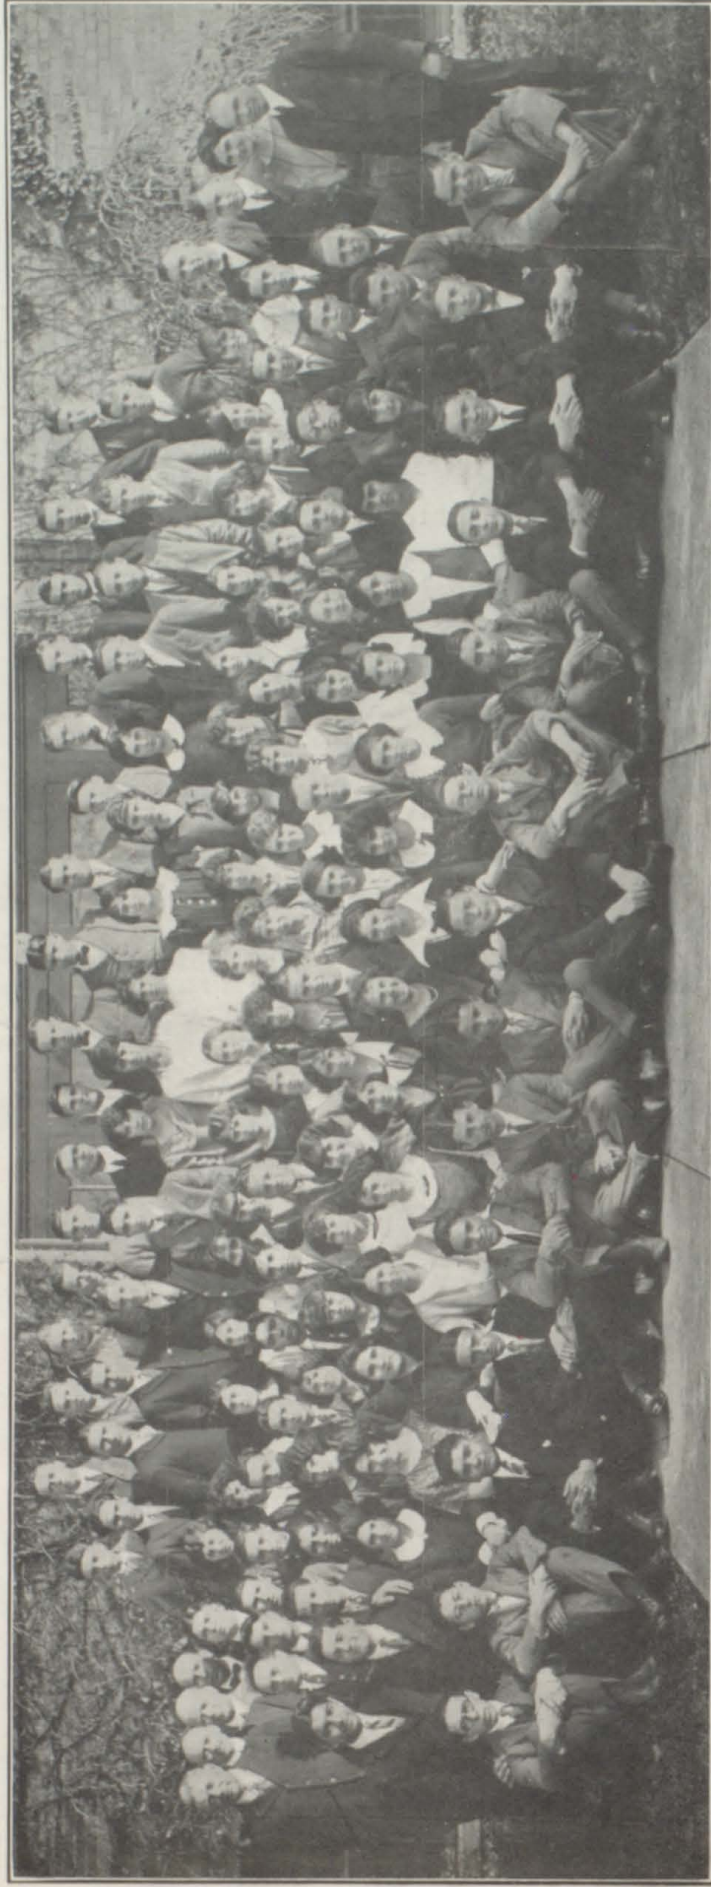

Then strives he again for the goal of play
While pride rises, born of the shouting,
And plies he again to the task—The way
And the why he how often was doubting!

The comrades that brightened the hour are there,
And hearty the sound of their laughter,
And now he arises and asks him "Where?
Not oft' have I seen them, after."

And so we continue our lives to live,
And a lengthening scroll are writing,
Our hope and our cause and our goal to give—
May we many candles be lighting!

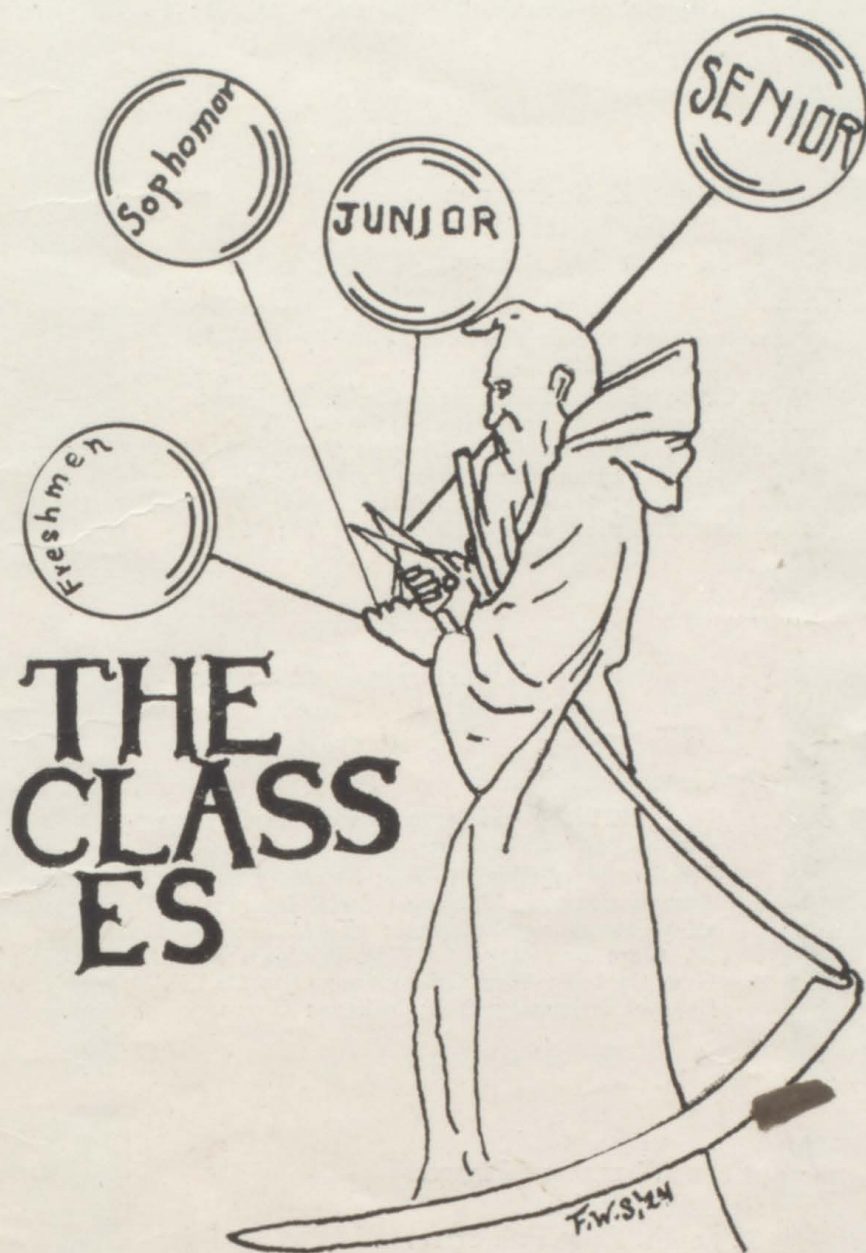

And how sweet to unroll the script that reads
Of a yesterday that is binding;
For our life is a scroll where we write our deeds
And memory is the unwinding.

JOSEPH CICCONE

In 1921 Joe went out for football. He started in the Central game, and made a spectacular run of 90 yards for a touchdown in the East Side game when the score was 7-7. In '22 Joe played consistently throughout the season, and proved a ground gainer, winning his "B" and a gold football. But Joe's finest work was done in 1923. His line plunging, end runs, throwing and receiving forward passes, all together made him a tower of strength to the team. In the E. O. game he threw two forward passes that resulted in touchdowns.

Joe played baseball also, and won his "B" in this sport. In short Joe is a modest young man who has distinguished himself in two major sports.

HERBERT EICHHORN

Herbert Eichhorn, familiarly known as "Ike," began his athletic career in the spring of '21 when he went out for a position on the baseball team. Herb was successful and earned a B2 that year. In '22 he went out for baseball again and that year earned the much coveted block B. In the fall of '22 Herb landed a position on the varsity football squad, his first year out, and was one of those honored with a gold football at the end of the season. In '23 Herb was elected captain of the baseball team and led over his squad to the N. J. I. A. A. championship. The team was awarded gold baseballs. In the fall of '23 Herb landed a position as end on the football team and was considered one of the best ends in the state. Herb is also a clever basketball performer. We can really call him our most versatile athlete.

"Herb"

"Bill"

"BILL" HELMSTAEDTER

Bill is one of the boys who stuck to his job for three years and now earned the coveted "B" and the gold spheroid in 1923 when he played tackle on the first team.

THOMAS JULIAN

Who hasn't heard of Tommy Julian? Tommy made his name in track. In 1922 Tommy made the 440 and 880 relay teams. He came in third in the Junior 880-yard run in the city meet. In the indoor season of 1923 Julian again made the 440-yard relay team as well as the mile relay. The team came in second in the N. A. C. meet. Tommy placed fourth in the 440-yard indoor championship. In the outdoor season of 1923 he ran on the relay team which established a new record for the 880-yard relay. Tommy made his "B" when he came in third in 440-yard run in the N. J. I. A. A.

"Tommy"

JAY SLIKER

Jay Sliker made his debut in Barringer Athletics in the fall of '20. He went out for football and earned a position as guard. After much diligent work he received his "B2." The next year he came out with a more determined effort and earned a position as tackle on the varsity eleven. The tackle position suited him to a "T." That year he was awarded his "B." In '22 Jay again was seen playing tackle on the varsity and at the end of the season was one of those honored with a gold football. In '23 Jay was selected to captain the team and piloted his team through one of our most successful seasons.

"Jay"

"Lee"

LEO SCHNEIDER

Leo made his letter his second year out for football in 1923. He alternated at the tackle position with Billy Helmstaedter. He also received a gold football.

SOLLIE KESSELMAN

Sollie handled the job of manager for the baseball team of 1923, and so deserves the right to wear a "B." He also wears the gold baseball awarded in consequence of the team's winning the N. J. I. A. A. championship. At-a-boy, Sollie.

KARL GORDINIER

Karl began his athletic career in Barringer in the spring of 1921. He made the 'varsity and thus gained his fame as a twirler. In the fall he was seen in a football uniform but was unable to earn his letter. The spring of 1922 saw Karl again out to show his wares on the baseball diamond. He proved one of the mainstays of the team and earned the much coveted "B." Karl gained much experience during the football season of 1922, which paved the way for his splendid playing in 1923. He played in a few games but failed to gain his letter. The 1923 baseball season proved a very successful one for Gordinier and his team mates. With Karl's splendid work, the team came through with flying colors, winning the N. J. I. A. A. championship. During the 1923 football season Karl firmly secured the quarterback position and failed to miss a game. He led the team to a tie in the N. J. I. A. A. championship and to a victory over East Orange by the score of 20-7. He received his letter and a gold football.

J. WESLEY MAPLETOFT

"Wek" won his "B" as football manager for the successful 1923 season. Ask any of the players whether or not "Wek" was on the job! A manager may have a thankless job, but we appreciate "Wek's" work.

"Anne"

ANNA FIEG

Anna may be small, but that isn't saying much. She's great! Although this was her first season of hockey she showed great prospects of becoming a star. Anna is another of our exhibition girls. She also received her cords.

MAX SAWATSKY

Max Sawatsky, better known as "Mac," took an interest in Baringer athletics from his first term in school. In the spring of '21 Mac ran on the Junior track team. He also became assistant baseball manager that year. In the spring of '22 Mac was elected baseball manager, and became one of our most popular managers. His outside activities kept him from participating in track. He was elected treasurer of our A A. in June '22. He ran cross country for part of the '22-'23 season, but again outside activities drew him away from the squad. He participated in class baseball and was a member of the Junior relay, which took first place in the meet of June '22.

ISABEL SCHNEIDER

Through her four years in B. H. S. Isabel Schneider has become prominent in hockey, swimming, and in gym exhibitions. Isabel has received all of her gym cords and it is more than probable that she will win one this year.

"Ibby"

"Scotty"

RUTH SCOTT

Ruth Scott has centered her athletic ability in hockey, swimming, and in the Track Meet. In hockey she has become quite a star, she is here, there, and everywhere. In the Physical Training Exhibition, "Scotty" was quite an addition to the troop of Swedish ladder climbers. In the Track meet Ruth won her "B" in the crew race.

HELEN URE

Whenever athletics are mentioned, one is sure to hear Helen Ure's name also. Ever since she has entered Barringer, Helen has been most active in all sports. Her freshman year was well taken up with pin ball, hockey, and basketball. She has been active in these for four terms. In the past two years, Helen has been a dandy hockey captain. In the Girl's Meet, Helen established her fame. Her "hop, step and jump" record almost equaled the best record held. When a "Swimming Team" was formed, she was one of the first to join. She has taken an active part in all the gym exhibitions and has thereby earned her four gym cords and will undoubtedly get her gold cord soon. Barringer will certainly lose a dandy athlete when Helen graduates..

"Cherub"

VIOLA GIALANELLA

You all no doubt have heard of Viola Gialanella. She was a shining star in the breath-taking stunts of the Circus of 1923. Viola has turned out for basketball, pinball, swimming, but hockey was her specialty, being captain this year. She has also received gym cards for excellent work in gym. In the track meet of June 1923, Viola won the second place "B" in the Swedish ladder event. "July" had a great liking for the ladders, and exhibited her talent by climbing to "dizzy heights" and performed summersaults. Viola is one of the holders of the record in the 245 yard dash.

Class History

OUR short years ago we came to Barringer as green little Freshies. Those were the good old days, of one session, auditorium every day, and everything to make one soon feel at home. We did not feel as bashful as we expected, for these reasons and because our teachers tried to make our lessons as EASY as possible. The Seniors also soon put us at our ease by giving us a 1B Reception, which we were informed had become a Barringer tradition here. We invited our mothers in order to give them the opportunity of meeting "our teachers," see the beauties of the school, and enjoy a social hour in the library. We one bees were escorted to the Gym where lolly pops, games and new surroundings gave us thrills long to be remembered.

Our big brothers and sisters did much to help us. It was a frequent sight to see a group of seniors visiting us during our long lunch hour trying to help us with our algebra. We looked up to them in awe, and regretted to see them graduate.

Much to our surprise, we did not go through much agony in teasing, although all could see by our pigtails, stature and humility, in what stage of high school life we were. All too soon our baby days were over and we passed on to the "wise fool" period.

Our Sophomore days were spent in making our friends in Barringer, and becoming accustomed to the daily routine of work. We went to the dances and parties given by the upperclassmen and so became a part of Barringer. From this unsophisticated stage we passed on to our big year!

We entered our Junior year with much enthusiasm, for now at last we were to become organized! Our first meeting was held May 26, 1922. We considered ourselves quite fortunate to have Miss Brettle our class advisor. In the election of officers we chose the following students: President, Ford Stevens; Vice-president, Helen Clements; Treasurer, Fred Herron; Secretary, Emily Campbell. Due to our delay in organizing, these officers retained their positions throughout the 3A term. Then Miss Brettle began her task of advising by emphasizing the fact that class spirit would spell the success of the class.

The 3A term started with plenty of work to do and many ready hands available. Before we could buckle down we had to have a constitution to guide us, so we elected Gordon Clark, Helen Ure and Wesley Mapletaft to draw up the constitution.

On Friday, October 13 (our lucky day) we held our first dance and it was a financial and social success. The proceeds from this dance considerably increased the size of our nest egg in the treasury. To enlarge still further our reserve fund we launched a campaign to get subscriptions for McCall's Magazine.

We next decided upon our class colors, "purple and silver." Then the chairman of the class motto committee presented several mottos to us, the one selected was "nothing suffices but the best," "nihil satis nisi summa."

We closed our Junior year well pleased with the work we had accomplished.

In February we elected our officers for the B term of our Senior year.

The outcome of the election was: President, Ford Stevens; Vice-president, Helen Ure; Secretary, Helen Clements; Treasurer, Winthrop Lenz.

Our first big affair in the Senior year was the Faculty Tea, which was given in the Library March 20, 1923. The faculty were well pleased with our "party" and we felt we had moved on one more step to success.

Our next undertaking was the 4B-4A Reception. This being another of Barringer's traditions we tried to carry out the plans as well as former classes had. The Reception was held in the Gym on the evening of May 11, 1923.

We also chose our rings this term. A ring with our color "purple" was selected, the amethyst stone in a gold setting.

After a happy summer vacation the class organized for the final term, with the following officers: President, Winthrop Lenz; Vice-president, Isabel Schneider; Treasurer, Fred Herron; Secretary, Helen Clements.

At this time we have only gone to a certain point with our undertakings. Our first one was the Big Brother and Sister Movement. This tradition was a very powerful one in Barringer but the last few years classes, either because of their lack of time or because of neglect have failed to carry it out to any great extent.

We decided we would be the class to put this tradition at its former standard. So far the class has been successful in its undertaking in the movement.

We were also entertained December 21, 1923, by the present 4B class who gave us a delightful reception.

The McCall drive was again used this year as a means of replenishing our treasury.

Our big affair of the year has not taken place yet but—December 13, 1923, we will present the "Senior Frolic" in which most of the students will take some part.

With this resume of activities accomplished, we feel that our four years of effort in the attempt to put Barringer in the lead has not been in vain. In later years we shall look back with pride upon our accomplishments and feel sure that succeeding classes will look up to the standard we have set!

THE 4A-1B RECEPTION

The important and solemn (?) welcome of our freshmen brothers and sisters took place in the Auditorium on the afternoon of _____ and a distinctly interesting program was given. First the freshmen were welcomed. A talk by Mr. Stearns followed, then 4 A's told of the activities of the different clubs and organizations of the school.

After the program the parents of the freshies retired to the library where tea and cake was served in abundance while the freshies themselves crowded the gym and were given lolly-pops (perhaps to keep them quiet) and were entertained with various games. The afternoon ended uproariously for the freshmen and we hope enjoyably for their parents and the reception proved highly successful.

There was a class of vol-un-teers Who pledged to jour-nex thru a

The first system of musical notation for the song 'CLASS'. It consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is in G major, 2/4 time, and begins with the lyrics 'There was a class of vol-un-teers Who pledged to jour-nex thru a'. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the right hand.

land for four long stead-y years a far-off goal in view Their

The second system of musical notation, continuing the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are 'land for four long stead-y years a far-off goal in view Their'. The musical structure remains consistent with the first system.

col-ors passed o'er moun-tain high And in-ter-ven-ing vale And

The third system of musical notation. The lyrics are 'col-ors passed o'er moun-tain high And in-ter-ven-ing vale And'. The piano accompaniment includes some chromatic movement in the bass line.

The fourth and final system of musical notation on this page. The lyrics are 'riv-ers wide where hopes may fail But cour-age did a- rail.' The system concludes with a final chord in the piano accompaniment.

SONG

The class was that of Twen-ty Four And Bar-rin-ger the land The moun-tain-les-sons to con-quer the vales were pleas-ures planned The riv-ers wide our fail-ures grim Not pur-ple sil-ver fold Wave o'er us at the far shores rim And we new lands be-hold.

The time has come to say farewell, to Barringer, our school,
Thru four long years we've been with thee, and con-ned thine ev'ry rule;
We've done our lessons, ill or well, to do our best we've tried,
We have thy knowledge, like a sword, now girded at our side.

To truth, to honor and the light on banner white and blue,
There is a pledge that we have made, to which we will be true.
To prove that from this parting time, our faith shall constant be,
Again we bind ourselves and pledge our honor unto thee.

FUTURE

MILCH

Looking Forward

AND this is Port Newark! How it has grown! One can hardly believe that in the ten years that we have been touring the world Port Newark could have become the most important harbor on the Atlantic sea-board. But the ship is docking and we must collect our baggage. That porter's face is very familiar—why if it isn't John Baldwin. He always said that he'd be able to carry things off well. Who is that selling papers? O yes, I remember, it's Alfred Dimiero. I'd like a Release Gazette, please. Why, look here! Ford Stevens is the editor of this paper. We must visit him at his office while we're in Newark. This way—I guess the subway is the quickest. Why it must be a teachers' excursion. Just look at all the old Barringer girls, Faustino Rizzolo, Jennie Green, Alice Morison, Marguerite Haldeman, Mary Pulsifer, Margaret Schaeffer, Mary Gasparini and Angelina Cardinale. I wonder whether they are all teaching in Newark. They say that Barringer has grown so large that an addition to the south of the present building has been suggested to care for the three thousand Barringerites. Here's a bit of news in this paper. Dot Vernet has gone as a missionary to some place in South Africa, I can't ever pronounce the name—Rather unexpected, isn't it? Some more news—Rudolph Stomp is the latest sheik of the movies and Sylvia Ruffkess plays opposite him. And here is a poem composed by Mabel Walters, "Ode to the Toothpick." I am so glad that Mabel has given scope to her poetic talent. How much more elevated is her subject matter! Edna Fryling has gained fame—she's a noted dancer. Why here's a picture of Herbert Eichhorn snapped with a group of Follies girls. He has changed, hasn't he? And Morris Rothberger has a large farm in Iowa upon which to work out his surplus energy. What a lot of ads in this paper! Esther Pearson conducts a beauty parlor and Helmstaedter has his saxophone studio in the same building. Here is the adv. of the Mapletoft Corduroy Knicker Co. Directly beneath is the announcement of the beginning of Herbert Noon's practise as a veterinary surgeon. I remember that he told me once, that he was going to be a doctor but he didn't say what kind. I see that Muriel Belknap is making a laughing record for the Victor Co. She has had lots of practice and ought to be able to do it well. Here is the adv. of the Thomson and Hagaman private kindergarten and the picture in connection with the adv. shows Winthrop Lenz, the head teacher, cutting out paper dolls for use in his class room. And we chose him for the most dignified boy in our class! There are just two more items of interest, the announcement of the opening of the Ray Townley haberdashery shop and the article on the designing of handkerchiefs by Helen Schoner, the noted seamstress.

"Next stop Newark—That's Herbert Smith, the guard, who just called. What a crowd is getting out here! Who is that pushing so? Harry Weiss, of course. But he is explaining that he is superintendent of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum which has been donated to the state by Muriel Whitehead, Reine Beucke and Orton Johnson, and he is hurrying there to deliver a very important speech to the inmates. I think we'll have to excuse him. Listen! Our arrival is being serenaded—George Maggio Jr. at the hurdy-gurdy and his assistant—it's Hartman! George always was musical as I remember. Goodness! this Broad and Market traffic is worse than ever—I thought that it would surely be regulated by this time. Just look at the number of traffic policemen. There's Frungello, Marieniss, Julian, Caprio, Cinfì and Nicholas Ciccone. I wonder whether they'll get that raise they're after.

"This must be the Gazette building. What a lot of telephone operators! I recognize Rivello, McGuinness, Colaruso, Siegle, Klein and Del Russo. This must be a very busy place. Now, Fred Herron, little office boys like you mustn't assume so much authority. The editor will be glad to see his old class mates, we're sure.

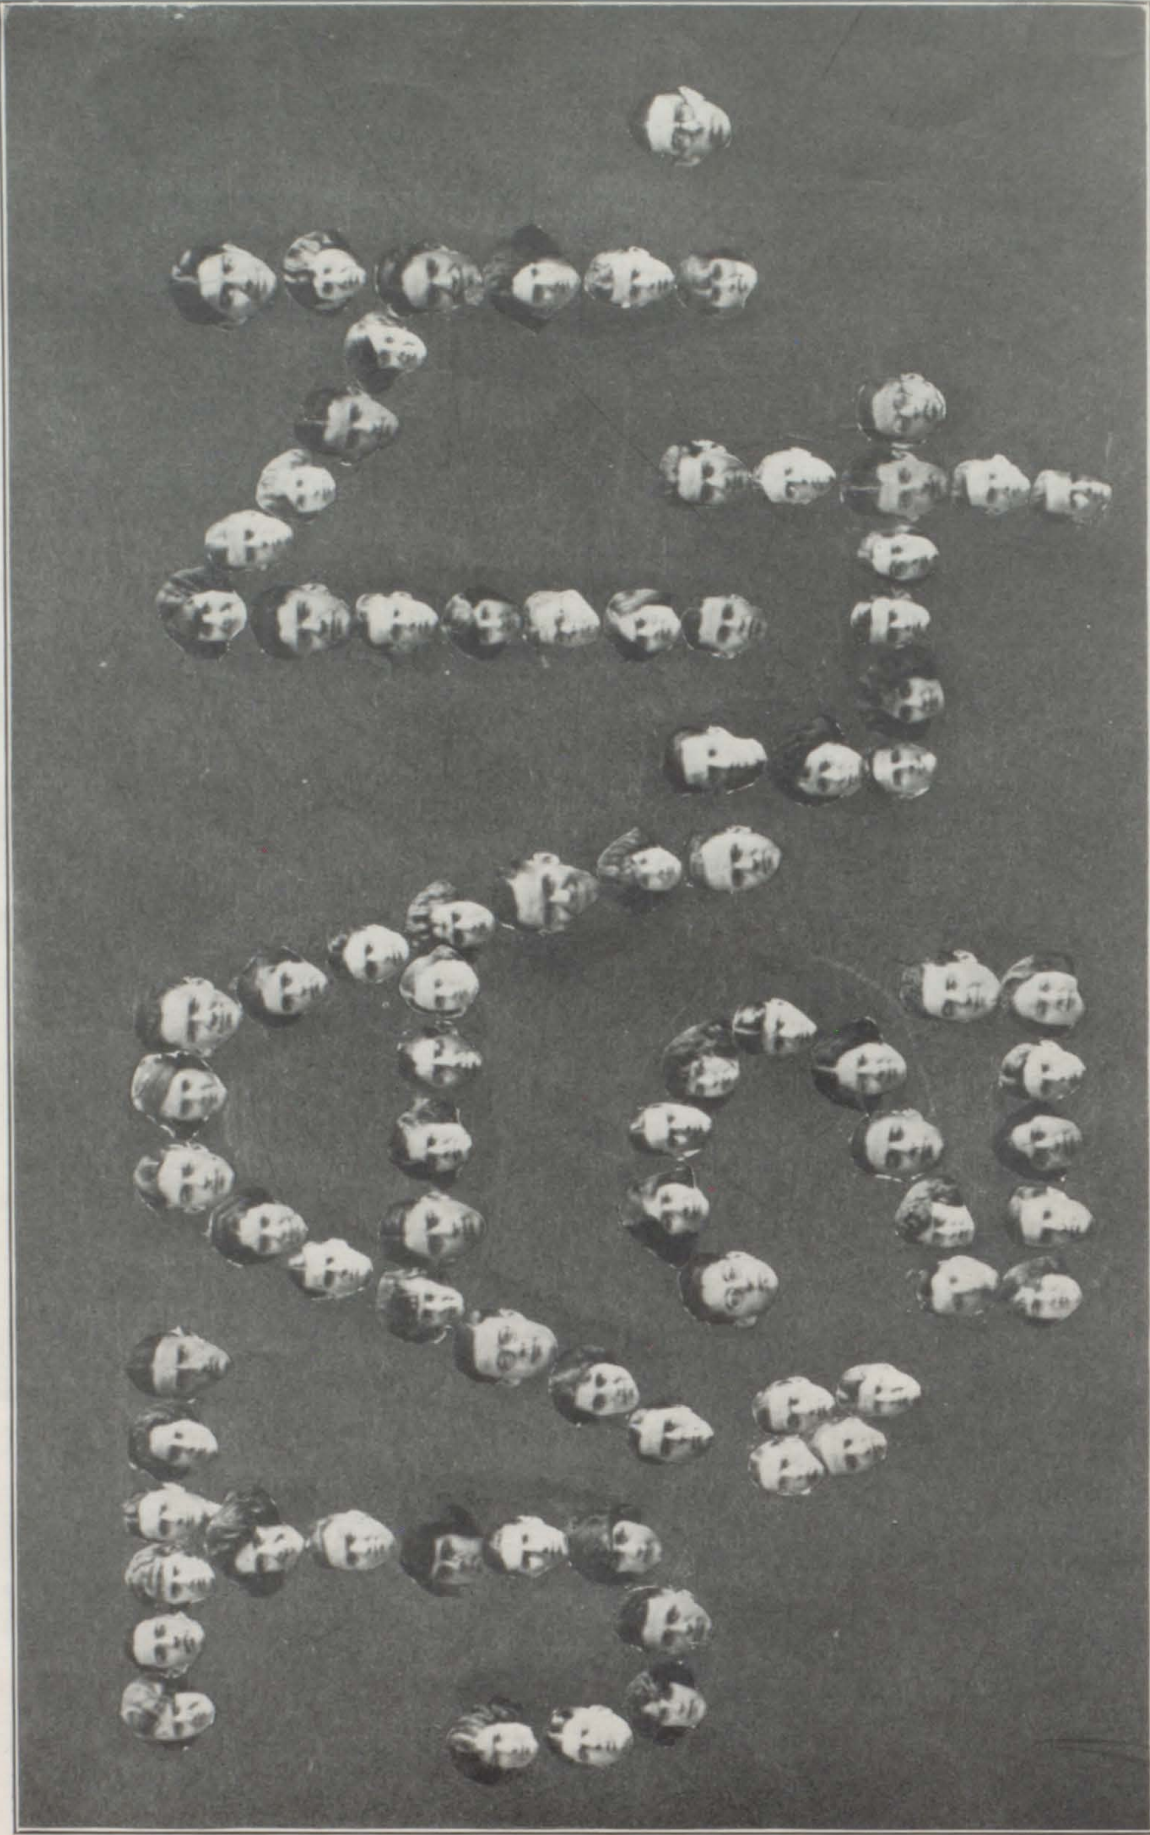

Why, what is the cause of all the excitement? Ruth Scott, the private secretary, seems better able to explain things than Anna Fieg and Isabel Schneider, the stenographers. So Alexander Milch is the cause of this. His cartoon of the president must have been pretty bad to get his papers into all this trouble. But his lawyers, Malvina de Hart and Emily Campbell, are very capable and will surely be able to get him out of this. We won't keep you Ford, you're very busy. We see that the Goldberg and Goldstein Circus is in town and since we're always eager to patronize anything that Barringerites are trying to put over, we're going up to see the evening performance.

"What a stunning car! It must be a foreign make, Vincent Mascia, the chauffeur, certainly has a snap working for that millionaire, Tip Forrest. By the way, I've heard that Tip is a successful bootlegger. Can that be possible? Oh look! a funeral is passing. I think I know the undertaker. Isn't he Edward Haviar? But here comes our car. Did you notice the motorman? He seemed rather familiar—I know! He's Fasenello, and the conductorette is Doris Hoops. And there is Alcamo, directly opposite us. His hair cut seems very suspicious. They always cut convicts' hair in that fashion. It's fortunate that we know Alcamo or we might be tempted to judge by appearances. The crowds are getting off here. This must be the circus grounds. How noisy it is! But no wonder—there is Speckman who, with Vanadia, has charge of that peanut stand. Angelina Cardinale and Julia Esposito have a stand too. I wonder which stand does the better business. Let's see the side show. The glowing explanations of Hugh Barney, the side show barker, certainly draw a crowd. Popper and Vitale are selling tickets. I can see the giant—it's Mary Lanzara, and the midget, Dumont Wyckoff, and there's Leo Schneider, the human skeleton. These side shows are fakes, though. Look at the bearded woman. "She" looks a great deal like Richer, and that man who is supposed to be so terribly wild resembles Sawatsky. There is Adelaide Hanson, the sword swallower, and the Siamese twins, who are none other than Malvine Mills and Anna Frey. The next are the snake charmers, Sarah Jessurun and Minnie Blasi. Max Minkin is keeper of the snakes and Mario Meo is his able assistant. Here is June Kessler, the mind reader, and last, the Hawaiian dancer, Joseph Kroeger.

It's almost time for the performance in the main tent—We'll have to hurry. Weiss and Silberfeld are the ticket sellers. Evidently Neuss, Nohmie, and Goldberg are going in too. They look to me like successful business men. Our seats are in the fifth row in this section. Not so bad. Look! Isn't that Helen Clements, the social welfare worker? Yes, and there is Gordon Clark, the big banker, too. The band is beginning to play. That selection is very familiar. Of course! There is Lillian Racioppi at the piano, Jerry Martino playing traps and Herbert Karg playing the saxophone. Del Plato, Policastro, Reale, and La Penna are playing too. I never knew that they were musicians, did you? The first act is a wild animal act. Freggins is the lion trainer and Dorothy Powell manages the leopards. How courageous those two have grown! And now we are to see that famous act, the football game played by elephants which have been trained by Sliker, Gordinier, and Ciccone. And Cornelius Bell is playing the part of water boy. If there is one person of our old class who is trying to walk the straight and narrow path it's Wilma Young. She is that splendid tight rope walker. Viola Gialanella and Helen Ure are still athletically inclined—they're the bare back riders and Ed Partington is their ring master. Kesselman is leader of the clowns and Edith Speer and Cecelia Kleinman make up the fencing act. And last we have the famous trapeze artists, Jennie Weiss and George Maggio Sr. What unexpected careers the members of our class have picked. I would never have believed it ten years ago, would you.'"

ye CLASS
ALPHABET

MILCH

CLASS ALPHABET

We'd like to tell more of this wonderful class
Of its virtue, its fame, and its wit;
But we've only a bit each lad and lass
Who make up this great alphabet.

- A A is for James Alcamo, a light!
He honors truth, a virtue by right.
- B B's for Barney devoted to football's cause
So he is worthy of much applause.
Of Baldwin we see little, though
What we do we're glad to know.
And M. Belknap, whose laughter annoys Mr. King.
Minnie Blasi's a nice, black-haired little thing.
O! Cornelius Bell is a man of affairs
And a reputation high he bears.
Miss Beucke's queenly name is Reine
Miss Burn's, Regina, means the same.
Irene Bullock was always friendly, calm, and kind
Few like her even among our class you'll find.
- C C's for Ciccone, "Scats" has made a name
Yet modestly hides behind his fame.
"Nic" Ciccone and solid geometry
Are not on the terms that they ought to be.
"Nic" Cinfì doesn't think much of Latin
Though he's short, he's it combattin'.
Anthony Caprio often is late
And was detention his deserved fate?
Gordon Clark is one of a pair
But ne'er could tell you why he's there.
A. Cardinale's fond mother has said
"She'd never stop smiling unless she were dead."
F. Colarusso loved—In good sooth
The course of true love ne'er did run smooth.
Our secretary gay, Helen Clements holds sway,
Who to a lad can never say, "Nay."
- D D's for De Hart, so friendly and bright,
All heartily say, "Malvine's all right!"
And Alfred Dimiero, a cute little boy
Is everyone's friend, and "Herb" Smith's joy.
Del Plato's a lad who does work hard,
'Tis virtue has its own reward.
Louise Del Russo is quiet; there are a few
As quiet, if more, what should we do?
- E E is for Eichhorn, our football star
A hero he is in every war.
Julia Esposito you soon will find
Is faithful in carrying out each day's grind.
- F F is for John Fasenello
He's really quite clever, we know.
Anna Fieg rides home every day
In a car, and a smile pays her way.

Stuart Forrest is friendly and nice,
Leslie Freggens is shy as mice.
Anna Frey in English is clever,
And many think that she's the best ever.
We must not forget James Frungello
He know's he's all right, and a good fellow.
And Edna Fryling is a free lance
In every party, for, O! she can dance!

G

G is first for Miss Jennie Green
Bright and promising she has been.
If an acrobat you e'er wish to see,
Just say, Miss Gialanella, V.
M. Gasparine for her questions is noted
Perhaps that is why she is always promoted!
Samuel Goldberg, pleasant and polite
Is ever in Benjamin Nohemies sight.
Goldenberg has curly hair,
Robert Goldstein's never "there."
As for Karl Gordinier, "still water runs deep,"
But a finer young gallant one never could meet.

H

H is for Haldeman, Marguerite
Was always playful, kind and sweet.
Adelaide Hanson hopes to get fat,
Surely she's at it, but not there for a' that.
Then there is Hartman, dark and petite,
When a dimple he'll flash, Morris looks sweet.
A student is Haviar, Edward by name,
Who in the near future will surely win fame.
Alberta Hagaman's a writer of note.
The Acropolis contained once a tale she wrote.
Bill Helmstaedter, whom you'll know by the noise
Can always be found with a number of boys.
A jovial laugh we like to hear
Announces Heron, fine, sincere.
Doris Hoops of the golden hair
Is a maiden pleasing, sweet and fair.
As for "Bus," Huff is a boy we know
Not very lively,—but still not so slow.

I

I stands for It, and It is our class
The pride of Barringer and each lad and lass.

J

J is for Johnson who we all call Orton
How many have heard of the girl he is courtin'?
Next is T. Julian, a cartoonist he,
Look in the papers, his art you may see.
Don't Miss Jesserum, our Spanish Miss Sara,
Who's doomed for a teacher in the Desert Sahara.

K

K is for Kesselman who takes all our "dough"
But there are others who do that, you know.
We have a nice lad so quiet and sober
He ne'er looks at a girl, does Joseph Kroeger.

Lillian Klein for orchestra selected
Ne'er by Economics is dejected.
Miss Kleinman you'll find, just follow the noise,
And don't forget she's fond of the boys.
June Kessler has notes at her command
They come like friends at her demand.

L

L's for Lanzara, too small to find,
But Mary'll talk you out of mind.
With Harold La Penna 'twas to do or to die
But he triumphed at last with scarcely a sigh.
Lenz is our president, not the least,
Yon can't find his equal, west or east.

M

M is for Mills, yes, Malvine is her name,
A model maiden, long may she be the same.
Alice Morrison's a lively young miss
Always talking or laughing, you've always known this.
A student, Mareiness, of preoccupied air
To leave out Sam would never be fair.
Jerry Martino's an optimist indeed,
Though his plans for college did not succeed.
Wesley Mapletoft's ever been a sport
Since he entered Barringer's port.
Vernita McGuinness was not always the same
Which proves the old saying, "What's in a name?"
Vincent Mascia has much poise
A thing's that's minus in many boys.
Mario Meo! Ah! Whence is he?
A Romeo modern he surely must be.
Max Minkin has a habit, they say,
Of omitting parts of a trying school day.
In Latin we're fed amusing rations
They're Maggio Sr's own translations.
Maggio Jr's a wizard quite
In languages, yes, he is bright.
Milch has an art for cartoons you're aware
And a vocabulary especially for the fair.

N

N's for Nohemie, our Ben small and neat
To know all he knows would be quite a treat.
Of Herbert Noon we are quite proud
For when he acts he draws a crowd.
Neuss, Jerome is original quite,
There's nobody like him, but he's all right.

O

O's for surprises, are there any?
Watch the 4 A's and you'll find many.

P

P is for Partington, we like Ed
Though he is quiet, enough said.
And P is for Pearson, Miss E., don't forget
Who though very charming is quite a coquette.
Nelson Pollicastro once tried to elope
He fell asleep on the job, now there's no hope.

Norman Popper's a daddy-long-legs for sure
Keep your distance from his seat and you're secure.
Then Palmer, yes, Herbie's either absent or late.
Excuses? He forgets them, 'tis sad to relate.
Next is Miss Pulsifer, who came with a smile
Who ever dreamed she'd stay such a while?
If you by chance should hear a mild howl
Follow the sound and find Dorothy Powell.

Q

Q is for Quakes, O many we've had
When Quizzes and Questions made us feel bad.

R

R's for Reale, some day you'll hear from afar
He's become the world's basketball star.
Lillian Raccioppi, a girl in our class
Is not a silent, but a talkative lass.
But Faustina Rizzolo is sober and quiet
It's certain she'll never start a riot.
To Betty Rivello life looks serene.
But late, she always appears on the scene.
Lives there a Roman who can scan
Latin as Leo Richer can?
Morris, called Rothberger, is someone's good son
But he furnishes the class with much of its fun.
Sylvia Ruffkess, a quiet young Miss,
Is booked for "The Follies," a certainty—this.

S

S is for Speckman, who is certainly the limit
For he's making some noise every minute.
Leo Schneider we will put in this place
For more than one reason—He fills up space.
Grace Schaefer is witty and frank and one
Who does what she thinks ought to be done.
M. Schaeffer we like, she's everyone's friend,
She's always willing a hand to lend.
And Helen Schoner, her pal, is one
Whom to be with is lot's of fun.
Rah! Rah! Stevens! he is the one
Who for our class the most has done.
Miss Schneider's grit will win, 'tis sure.
While creatures nerveless here endure.
Ruth Scott is a girl so steady and fine,
To "Scotty" we'll sing in grateful line
N. Silberfeld is witty and wise
He knows this fact, it's no surmise.
In football Sliker is royal king
So we to him all praises sing.
Max Sawatsky really has wit
We've laughed with him and laughed at it.
And Rudolph Stromp has mischievous ways
How cute! So lively! And young of days!
Bertha Siegle is quiet, it's true
We hardly know what she's going to do.
Smith, Helen's, a girl of aristocracy,
Smith, Herbert's smile is a thing to see.

T

Miss Tarleton lives not in this city
 But she's very sweet and pretty.
 Ray Townley's our collegiate son
 For a nice dresser he is one.
 Fannie Thomson with her sunny way
 Has made us happier many a day.

U

And he who knows not Helen Ure
 She may with her fair blue eyes lure.

V

V's for Vernet, and her name's Dorothy,
 The boys all adore her, so pleasing is she.
 Acropolis agent Vanadia, Paul
 Fears history but that is all.
 And Michael Vitale's both friendly and fine,
 We like his brown eyes, we add to this line.

W

W's for Weisses, the varying three
 The confirmed disputer is Harry B.
 Remember the times with music so deep
 In assembly, Miss Jennie has played us to sleep?
 From Henry Weiss we hear much noise
 Just as we do from many boys.
 Passion and beauty has Miss Whitehead, M.,
 And we her admire for both of them.
 Wyckoff towers high, we're glad to say
 When so many midgets we find every day.
 Now comes M. Walters, well known near and far,
 For she, you know, is our literary star.

X

X is the unknown always, we know
 And here as usual it is so.

Y

Y is for Young, with plenty of charm
 Sincerely we hope she'll do you no harm.

Z

Z is for Zayas, for Trinita de
 O! Lovely to end with, all 4 A's agree.

ODE TO A FOOTBALL SCRUB

By Harry B. Weiss

I was a scrub for three long years,
Before I got a chance to play.
I took the right-end's place, 'mid cheers
For both, on that eventful day.
I caught the pass that won the game,
I'll tell you how I made my name.

As Frosh I joined the cheering squad,
And saw the games they played at home.

I paid a quarter for a card,
And then I got a megaphone.
I shouted loud for every play,
And asked, "How do they get that way?"

As Soph I was so big and bold,
I tried to make the football team.
The burly coach, he said I was
"As clumsy as a wooden beam."
To one my woes did I confide,
The track-coach taught me perfect stride.

A learned Junior now was I,
"I'll show the boys just how to play."
I kicked the football to the sky,
It struck the ground ten yards away.
"You're not as awkward as you seem,— You're worse; get on the seventh team!"

A Senior, now I must make good!
I ran like mad and tackled hard,
But still was I a substitute,
The other ends had also starred.
I hoped and prayed but all in vain;
A first-team berth I could not gain.

Then came at last Thanksgiving day,
The biggest game throughout the state.

And too, 'twas my last chance to play,
For soon was I to graduate.
To play I begged the coach, but no,—
I did not start against the foe.

'Til, early in the second half,
When neither team had scored a point,
Our right-end could not stand the gaff,
They knocked his elbow out of joint.
Poor chap, his pain showed on his face,
But—I was told to take his place!

They cheered for me, the scrubs, the crowd,

I'm grateful to them still for that.
At last, to me good fortune bowed!
I thought of "Casey at the bat."
To alma mater then, a vow
I made, I would not fail her now!

Thrice charged the foe; our line was stone!

For these three plays I had to wait,
Until a forward pass was thrown,
And led within my reach by fate.
Before me all the field was clear,—
I ran like one possessed with fear.

A gaining shadow spurred me on,
As toward the last white mast I fled;
It grasped my legs, it clung to me,
And threw me to the ground like lead,—

Too late! The ball was o'er the line!
The scoring for that day was done!
All hail to alma mater mine,
In her fair name the game was won!

We like her to know that we prize her.

We have a big boy called "Fat"
Schneider,

Poor jitney, when he's a bus rider

To sharpen a razor

He called up a glazier

That elephantine Leo Schneider.

And then there's a fellow named Ford,
